

2018 VOL. 51, ADVERTISING ORDER FORM

Vol. 51, No. 1: Special Theme Issue: Materials of the Sacred

How does the very substance of religious art and architecture convey a sense of the holy? When we choose stone, wood, glass, metal, paint, tile, or any of the materials available to us, how does it help create a sacred place? How do sustainable materials express our love and stewardship of God's creation? This issue will explore the use of materials—traditional and cutting edge—to bring our sacred places into being.

Vol. 51, No. 3: Special Anniversary Issue: The Architecture and Art of Community

This theme issue focuses on how the sacred places we create serve community needs and become neighborhood assets. More and more faith communities have a new appreciation of their role as resources for those outside their immediate congregation. Works in this issue will explore how creative design can forge strong connections between sacred environments and the communities they serve.
